Are Tax Problems Stressing You Out?

You are not alone. If you have one or more years of unfiled tax returns, need to amend a return, owe money to the IRS or state you can't pay, or if you're being audited, these problems probably seem overwhelming and intimidating.

Are these feelings causing you stress? The fact that you're reading this means you've decided to face that stress. Good for you! I understand your worry and I understand taxes. As an enrolled agent, I specialize in federal and state taxes. I am licensed to stand in front of the IRS in place of my clients and handle their cases on their behalf.

Tax laws are complicated and it's easy to get on the wrong side of the IRS, often through no fault of your own. The fact that you are reading this means you want to get on the right side of your tax problems. I do understand taxes and the worry they cause. More importantly, I know how to help people like you take control of their tax problems.
